Gulf Oil Launches New Syntrac Engine Oil for High-Performance Motorcycles at IBW 2025

- Gulf marks its third consecutive year as main sponsor of India Bike Week
- Focus on Premium and High-Performance Two-Wheeler Segment Highlighted
- Trackhouse Racing Team's MotoGP Bike in Gulf Livery Showcased for the first time in India at IBW 2025

Mumbai, December 29, 2025 – Gulf Oil Lubricants India Limited, one of India's leading lubricant companies, announced the launch of its new range of Gulf Syntrac, 100% fully synthetic premium motorcycle engine oil range, at India Bike Week (IBW) 2025- Asia's largest and most influential motorcycling festival. The brand returned as the event's main sponsor for the third consecutive year which was held in Panchgani this time.

The launch of Gulf Syntrac at IBW highlights Gulf's sharpened focus on the growing premium and high-performance motorcycle segment. API SP compliant, Syntrac is also being actively spotlighted as its advanced ester-technology driven premium engine oil range. The range offers 11 SKUs in multiple viscosity grades such as 10W-30, 10W-40, 10W-50, 15W-50 and 20W-50. Engineered to protect engines, gearboxes and wet clutches, the formulation delivers superior performance under high temperatures, high RPMs and heavy load conditions, making it ideal for riders who indulge in aggressive city riding, highway touring and frequent high-speed runs.

Within Gulf's two-wheeler portfolio in India, Syntrac sits above the Gulf Pride range and represents a strategic addition to the brand. It expands Gulf's offering with an extensive range of fully synthetic, premium engine oils and positions Syntrac as the flagship line for high-performance motorcycles.

IBW 2025 provided the perfect platform for the lubricant major to engage directly with India's passionate riding community and showcase its performance-led portfolio. Major highlights at the brand's pavilion included Live stunt performances by Pol Torres - International Enduro Stunt Performer at the Gulf Enduro Park and the first-ever India showcase of the Gulf Trackhouse Racing Team's MotoGP bike in Gulf Livery, reinforcing the company's deep-rooted association with global motorsports and its philosophy of using racing as a testbed for innovation.

HINDUJA GROUP

Mr. Ravi Chawla, Managing Director & CEO, Gulf Oil Lubricants India Ltd., said, “India Bike Week is a true celebration of the spirit of motorcycling, and our third consecutive year with IBW has only strengthened our bond with India's biking community. The unstoppable energy at IBW and turnout of riders from across the country perfectly mirrors Gulf's own ethos of performance and passion. The launch of Gulf Syntrac at IBW is especially significant for us, it represents our commitment to high-performance, fully synthetic solutions inspired by motorsports and built for passionate riders. Through immersive experiences, motorsport showcases like the Trackhouse MotoGP bike in the Gulf Livery, and direct engagement with riders, IBW continues to be a powerful platform for Gulf to inspire ambition and grow alongside India's vibrant motorcycling fraternity.”

As part of its IBW 2025 presence, Gulf also reinforced its role as a long-term partner to the riding ecosystem through initiatives such as Product Display Zone, the Bike Service Stop, the Gulf Club Lounge and more.

The launch of Gulf Syntrac and its partnership with India Bike Week, Gulf Oil highlighted global motorsport heritage, advanced lubrication technology, and deep community connect to fuel India's evolving motorcycling culture.
